The Tamil Nadu Medical Selection Committee has completed 6 rounds of online counselling based on the DGHS Schedule and Supreme Court of India Guidelines. At the end of the counselling 2 MBBS seats remain vacant in Tamil Nadu. (Arising because allotted candidates failing to join the college/course)

Based on the MCC guidelines and the orders of the Hon'ble Supreme Court of India, the Tamil Nadu Medical Selection Committee has decided to conduct Special Stray Vacancy Round III with the following eligibility conditions: -

NOT ELIGIBLE CANDIDATES

- Candidates who are holding any UG Medical/Dental seat in Tamil Nadu or AIQ are not eligible for this round of counselling

As per the Hon'ble Supreme Court in the above-mentioned order

"..... We, however, clarify that the stray/special admission process should not disturb the admissions which are already finalized"

ELIGIBLE CANDIDATES

- Candidates who do not hold any seat only are eligible to register for this round (they should have applied to Tamil Nadu Medical Selection Committee and be present in the merit list).

Candidates are instructed to think carefully before filling their choices, because this is the final phase of counselling and not joining the allotted seats will result in seats not being filled up. If the candidates fail to join in the allotted course they will have to forfeit the Security Deposit and Tuition fee already paid and also will have to pay Discontinuation fee.

IMPORTANT NOTE:

The candidates and parents need to understand that these seats are precious in nature. Hence, if allotted a seat during this Special Stray Vacancy Round III, kindly join the allotted seat. If, due to any reason the allotted candidate does not join the allotted seat, his/her refundable security deposit will be forfeited and discontinuation fee will be applied along with debarment from Tamil Nadu UG Medical Counselling 2025 and any action including legal may be taken by the Competent Authority.
