

SCHEDULE OF COUNSELLING FOR ADMISSION TO PG COURSES IN AFMS PG INSTITUTIONS FOR NEET PG 2021

| S. No. | Candidate Priority | Date of Counseling                            | Venue  |
|---------------|---------------------------|--|---|
| 1.            | Priority I & II           | 20 to 21 Jan 2022                                    | By Video Conferencing on an online platform                               |
| 2.            | Priority III              | 22 Jan 2022  | By Video Conferencing on an online platform                               |
| 3.            | Priority IV               | 22 Jan 2022  | By Video Conferencing on an online platform                               |
| 4.            | Priority V                | 24-25 Jan 2022(Counselling will be held Offline) | Armed Forces Medical CollegeSolapur RoadWanowriePune - 411040 |

Note :

- Merit-wise list for priority III, IV & V will be notified after the process of registration is over.
- Groups will be created for all the Priorities separately and all relevant information including the link for online counselling will be shared with the candidates. All are requested to join the group with their mobile number registered with NBE having internet connectivity.
- Candidates in Priority I to IV are required to log in to the link which will be forwarded to them before the day of counselling, 01 hour before the schedule time of the counselling. All candidates have to be ready with their laptops or smart phones with a proper network, audio and visual. If any candidate will not be able to log in for the online counselling at the time of his/her merit, then he/she has to be available telephonically when contacted over the phone. An alternate mobile number may also be given.
- Seat availability for each priority will be uploaded in the evening at 1800 hrs before the respective days of counseling.
- The registered Priority V candidates desirous of joining AFMS Institutes are to report to AFMC, Pune on 24 Jan 2022 at 0730 hrs.

