Press Note

Regarding non receiving of the Post Matric Scholarship for the academic session 2018-19 onwards.

Whereupon the Hon'ble Chairman, National Commission for Scheduled Castes, New Delhi dated 16.01.2023 has observed that there is a delay in disbursal of the Post Matric Scholarship to the beneficiaries/students under the ambit of Medical Education and Research, Department, Haryana. Hence the students specially from the private institutes at times are not allowed/debarred to fill the examination forms and sometimes their degrees/original certificates are withheld by the institution even after passing out.

The Hon'ble Commission has directed that if a student has applied for Post Matric Scholarship and there is delay in disbursement of the same, the Institution will not prevent/ debar any student from appearing in the examinations/ declaration of result/internship nor retain the degree/original certificates of such student and charge any kind of fees/funds.

In this regard, all the Institutions under the ambit of the Medical Education and Research, Haryana are directed to follow the above instructions in letter and spirit.
