NOTICE

Urgent Attention for all Candidates of NEET-PG, 2023:

It is to bring to your kind notice that the counselling for NEET (PG)-2022 was successfully conducted and after completion of all the 04 Rounds of counselling, a Special Stray vacancy Round was proposed and was conducted with the following conditions:-

- 1. An additional amount of Rs. 50,000/- as security amount will be paid by the participating candidates in order to participate in Special stray vacancy round,*
- 2. In case, a candidate has participated in Special stray vacancy round wherein he/she has been allotted a seat & fails to report to his/her allotted college. Such a candidate may be debarred from participating in upcoming NEET-PG examination & counselling 2023-24 along with forfeiture of Rs. 50,000/-(as mentioned above) .*

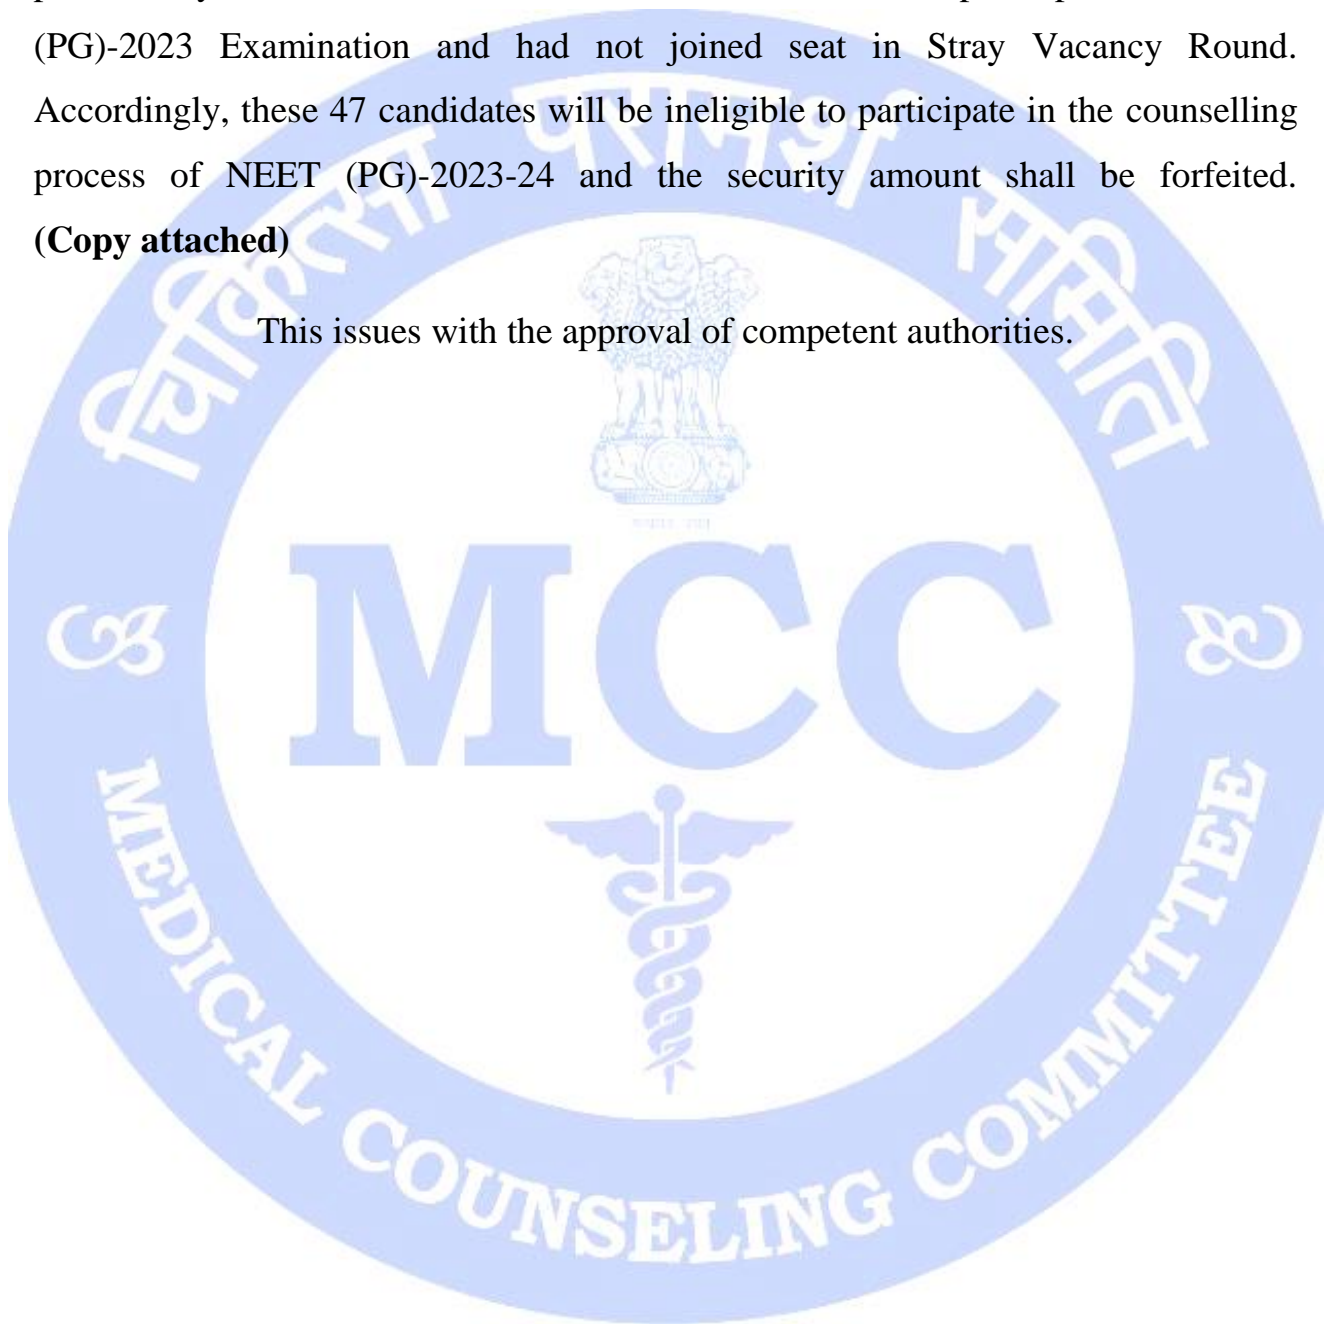

An undertaking was also taken from the candidates who wished to participate in the Special Stray Vacancy Round of NEET(PG)-2022 with the abovementioned conditions, to which the 'candidates voluntarily agreed' .

However, even after the conduction of Special Stray Round, a total of 127 candidates failed to report at the allotted college. Hence, as per the terms and conditions of the Special Stray Vacancy Round, these 127 candidates will not be eligible to participate in the Examination and counselling process of NEET (PG)-2023-24 and also the security amount of Rs. 50,000/- , as deposited for Stray Vacancy Round shall stand forfeited.

In reference to the same, the details of these 127 candidates were sought from NBE, if any of them have participated in NEET (PG)-2023-24 Examination. As per the data provided by NBE, total 47 candidates have been traced who participated for NEET (PG)-2023 Examination and had not joined seat in Stray Vacancy Round. Accordingly, these 47 candidates will be ineligible to participate in the counselling process of NEET (PG)-2023-24 and the security amount shall be forfeited. (Copy attached)
