ORDER

Per. Justice Sushrut Arvind Dharmadhikari

Heard on the question of admission.

The petitioners are MBBS graduates, who had appeared for the NEET-PG-2024 examination and after securing the requisite percentile and rank have become eligible to participate in the counselling at both All India Quota (AIQ) and State levels. However, due to interim order passed by this Court in W.P. No.162/2025, the results of 2nd round of counselling for the NEET-PG-2024 examination has been stayed.

Learned counsel for the petitioners contends that because of the interim order passed by this Court, the petitioners would be forced to resign from All India Quota 2nd round counselling as per the guidelines, which provides that the candidate has to resign and deposit the security amount on or before 14.01.2025.

In view of the aforesaid, learned counsel prays that the respondents may be directed to extend or relax the resignation guidelines for All India Quota PG Counselling only for 2nd round seats without forfeiture of security deposits until the results of 2nd round counselling are declared.

Taking into consideration the fact that the results of the 2nd round counselling have already been stayed by this Court in W.P. No.162/2025, the respondents are directed not to compel the petitioners to resign as also not to forfeit the security amount till the result of the 2nd round counselling is declared by the State.

With the aforesaid direction, this petition is finally disposed of.
