

Frequently Asked Questions (FAQs):

MPMC-FMG Clinical Clerkship/Internship Counselling (Dec-2024)

Q: I have not yet received my FMGE Pass Certificate from NBE. What should I do?

A: Candidates who have not received their FMGE Pass Certificate can use their FMGE Scorecard to apply for an internship in Madhya Pradesh (MP) State. Once you receive your FMGE Pass Certificate, you must get it verified and submit the copy of the same at your respective college.

Q: What should candidates do if they have a NEET Scorecard instead of an Eligibility Certificate?

A: Exceptions have been made regarding the eligibility certification for the 2013 and 2018 batches.

The NMC has not issued eligibility certificates for these batches, but instead, the NEET Passing Certificate or Score Card is recognized as their Eligibility Certificate for the 2018 batch. Additionally, a public notice issued by the NMC addresses the eligibility for the 2013 batch.

Candidates who have a NEET Scorecard instead of an Eligibility Certificate can:

- Fill in the NEET Roll Number in place of the certificate number.
- Use the passing date in place of the certificate date.
- Upload the NEET Scorecard in place of the Eligibility Certificate.

Q: The guidelines mention a Provisional Registration Receipt. Is it required at the time of joining?

A: Candidates are eligible to apply for provisional registration after joining their internship. Therefore, at the time of college admission, they may exclude the provisional registration receipt and inform the college authorities that they will apply for it after starting their internship.

During the verification process, colleges are requested to omit the verification of the provisional registration receipt.

Q: Is the Domicile Certificate compulsory?

A: MP State Domicile;

- Candidates who are domiciled in Madhya Pradesh (MP) State must submit their domicile certificate.

Non-MP Domicile;

- Candidates from other states can submit their own state domicile certificate if available. If they do not have a domicile certificate from their state, they must submit a self-declaration stating that they are not from MP and do not currently have their state domicile certificate.

Applicants who have been granted merit due to MP domicile must produce a valid MP Domicile Certificate, otherwise they lose their candidature.

Q: Is an Affidavit compulsory?

A: Yes, a self-undertaking affidavit is compulsory. The affidavit must:

- Be notarized.
- Be on a ₹50/- stamp paper for MP candidates.
- For non-MP candidates, it should be made on the requisite stamp paper as per their state's regulations.

Q: The candidates who want to cancel their admission by himself or cancellation by college due to any discrepancy found.

A: In cases where a candidate wishes to cancel their admission or if the college cancels the admission due to any discrepancies found, the college must obtain a written undertaking from the candidate confirming the cancellation. The college should then generate a cancellation slip, print it, clearly state the reason for cancellation (e.g., eligibility issue, discrepancy found, or voluntary withdrawal), and obtain the candidate's signature for confirmation.
