ORDER

The allegation against the writ petitioner, who was holding the post of Medical Store Officer was that she procured excess medicines beyond the permissible limit, which became expired and resulted in financial loss to the State Exchequer. There are wider allegations in the public domain that expired medicines are supplied to the poor patients, who all are taking treatment in the Government Hospitals in Urban and Rural areas. The medicines became ineffective as it expired.

2. That apart, in recent days, frequently diseases are out breaking, despite the fact that the Government announced various sanitation programs. After COVID-19, Monkey Pox and thereafter, Influenza and many more are spreading across the State of Tamil Nadu. These viral diseases are spreading continuously and the reason for such spreading over are not found out by the Medical Researchers, and competent authorities of the State.

3. There is a doubt in the public domain that, whether any miscreants are committing some illegalities in the matter of spreading such diseases in the society for their personal gain in an organised manner. There are many allegations against the pharmaceutical companies and even recently, the Honourable Supreme Court of India recorded the fact that the pharmaceutical companies have made money in thousands of crore by promoting their brand in an unethical manner.

4. Whether these pharmaceutical companies are indulging in any other illegal activities for spreading these kind of viral diseases or not, are also to be enquired into and an investigation is imminent. Whether the State is monitoring the activities of the pharmaceutical companies, supply of medicines to the Government Hospitals and private traders, all to be considered by this Court in order to ensure, health being an integral part of Article 21 of the Constitution of India and it becomes the Fundamental Rights of citizen.

5. Therefore, the 1st respondent is directed to furnish the reasons and details regarding the spreading over of viral diseases, one after another, without any gap in the State of Tamil Nadu and by conducting necessary enquiry and to ascertain the activities of these pharmaceutical companies and other medicine traders.

6. The respondents 1, 5 and 6 are directed to submit a report before this Court on 27.10.2022 for further consideration.

7. Post the matter on 27.10.2022, under the caption “For Orders”
