No. U-15027/7/2022-UGMEB/031603

Dated: 7, June 2023

To,
Principal /Dean All Medical Colleges / Institutes,

Sub: Submission of Compliance Report on Anti-Ragging Measures, Incidents of Ragging and Actions Taken

Sir/Madam,

A module/portal is available on NMC website for lodging complaints by the medical students. NMC use to forward the complaints received on this portal/module to the college. It is observed that colleges do not responded to the complaints forwarded to them in time. Therefore, all the colleges are requested to promptly attend the complaints forwarded to them and send compliance report immediately. Not responding to the complaints will be viewed seriously.

2. National Medical Commission has notified "National Medical Commission (Prevention and Prohibition of Ragging in Medical Colleges and Institutions) Regulations, 2021" on 18th Nov 2021. As per Para 7 (3)(vii) and 18(2) of Regulations 2021, all medical colleges / Institutes are required to submit "Compliance Report" in the prescribed format (Copy attached) to this commission annually. Since, the issue of these regulations, one and half year has already elapsed, yet Medical Colleges / Institutes have not submitted the said Compliance Report.

3 All the colleges are directed to comply with the Prevention and Prohibition of Ragging in Medical Colleges and Institution, Regulations, 2021 and submit Compliance Report as per attached format to this Commission at the earliest and latest by 30th June 2023. The report for the period ending 31st March, 2023 should include all the complaints received after UG & PG admission of 2021 & 2022 batch.

Yours,Sincerely

(Aujender Singh)
Deputy Secretary, PGMEB
& Member Secretary, Anti Ragging Cell.

Encl: As stated
