No. U. 15029/56/2023-UGMEB

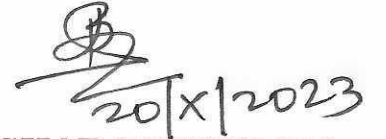

dated 20.10.2023

PUBLIC NOTICE

Government of India introduced 10% reservation to the Economically Weaker Section (EWS) of the society through the 103rd Constitutional Amendment. This is also applicable for Medical Education. In this regard, it has been observed that Medical Institutions are admitting additional students for MBBS course under Economical Weaker Section quota over and above the sanctioned seat.

All Institutions are required to admit the sanctioned number of students including EWS category within the permitted seat quota. No additional seat shall be permitted by the National Medical Commission.

This issues with the approval of Competent Authority.
