NOTICE

Kind Attention:

MCC is in receipt of various representations from college and NEET SS candidates to include offline surrender seats in Special Mop-Up round of NEET SS counseling 2022-23 which is being conducted as per counseling schedule available on website.

Since as per Information Bulletin and counseling policy (FAQ No. 38 of pg. no. 20 i.e., “Can a candidate resign from Round-I or Round-II once he joins the allotted college? Ans.: No, once candidate joins the allotted seat he/she cannot resign. It is pertinent to mention that all admissions should be made online only and candidates should ensure that their Admission Letter has been generated online through the portal provided by MCC of DGHS. Any offline admission letter will be treated as ‘Null & Void’ and will lead to cancellation of seat of candidate”) of NEET SS conducted by MCC does not permit resignation (Offline/Online) mode therefore such seats surrendered by the candidates cannot be included in Special Mop-Up round of NEET SS 2022-23.
