AIM & OBJECTIVES

2. The courses are being conducted to fulfil the following requirements:-
- (a) To meet the requirements of specialist cadre vacancies by training serving Armed Forces Medical Services (AFMS) officers.
  - (b) To meet the training requirements of foreign students sponsored by Govt of India.
  - (c) To offer PG courses to Medical Officers sponsored by Para-Military / other Govt. of India organization.
  - (d) To maintain a reserve pool of specialist officers by offering PG courses to Ex-SSC officers who are on the reserve lists of AFMS.
  - (e) To maintain a pool of Specialist Medical officers by selecting and training civilian doctors who will have to execute a bond to serve in AFMS for a period of 05 years as Commissioned Officers on successful completion of the post graduate course.

GENERAL INSTRUCTIONS, TERMS AND CONDITIONS

3. Candidates may kindly note that appearance in NEET-PG does not confer any automatic rights to secure a Post graduate MD/MS/Diploma seat in AFMS institution. Candidates who have registered for AFMS PG counseling on the DGHS/MCC website only will be considered for PG seats at AFMS institutes through AFMS counseling subject to fulfilling the admission criteria, eligibility, medical fitness and any such criteria as may be prescribed by the respective universities, AFMS institutions, National Medical Council and State/Central Government.
4. Candidates producing false or fabricated information shall not be considered for admission in AFMS institutes.

5. Candidates should go through the Information Bulletin carefully before contacting the AFMS for any queries. Queries pertaining to eligibility and other issues shall only be entertained if the information requested is not given in this bulletin.
6. Instructions in the information bulletin are liable to changes based on decisions taken by the AFMS /NBE /NMC/ MoHFW from time to time. The candidate will have to fulfil all the criteria stipulated at the time of admission.
7. AFMS reserves the right to withdraw permission to participate in AFMS counseling, if any, granted inadvertently to any candidate who is not eligible to appear in the AFMS counseling.
8. Candidates' eligibility is purely provisional and is subject to the fulfilment of eligibility criteria as prescribed in this Information Bulletin.
9. The existing schedule, pattern, policy and guidelines are for ready reference only for admission for the year 2022.
10. In case of any ambiguity in interpretation of any of the instructions/ terms/ rules/ criteria regarding the determination of eligibility of candidates/ conduct of AFMS counseling/ information contained herein, the interpretation of the AFMS will be final and binding.
11. All the correspondence should preferably be addressed by e-mail. The e-mail query shall be addressed only if it contains NEET-PG Roll No. and contact telephone number of the sender. An e-mail containing vague or general queries that are contained in the Information Bulletin shall not be entertained. Queries shall not be entertained from person claiming themselves to be representative, associates or officiates of the applicant candidate.
12. Candidates are advised to visit the websites www.afmcdg1d.gov.in & www.mcc.nic.in regularly for information and notices pertaining to admission to PG courses at AFMS institutions for the year 2022.
13. Candidates may note that by registering for AFMS PG counseling on the DGHS/MCC website, the candidate is deemed to have read, agreed and accepted the terms and conditions in the Information Bulletin of AFMS for admission to PG courses for year 2022.

NUMBER OF SEATS

14. The institution wise tentative number of seats available, in each speciality for the year 2022 session will be uploaded before the counseling. After fulfilling the AFMS requirements, remaining seats, if any will be available to Priority II (Sponsored candidates from Friendly Foreign Countries), Priority III candidates (Para Mil and other Govt. of India sponsored candidates), Priority IV (Ex-SSC AMC Officers) and Priority V (Civilian doctors) in that order. The number of seats in AFMS institutions available in a particular year for admission may not tally with seats depicted on NMC or MCC website & will be governed by the existing recognized faculty / resources available, after approval of the Office of DGAFMS. It is also likely that no seat may be available for some of the priority categories.

15. The exact number of seats available along with their status as recognized/ permitted by NMC in different AFMS institutes for the 2022 session, with their subject-wise break-up, will be displayed on the AFMS website before the commencement of counseling of that particular priority. Stipend/ Fee structure/ course duration & contents etc. may vary from state to state and from institution to institution. The candidates need to examine these points during counseling before opting for a seat at the AFMS institutes. The AFMS shall neither be responsible nor shall entertain any case on the above grounds. Candidates are advised to visit the AFMS website regularly.

PRIORITY / CATEGORY FOR ADMISSION

16. Admissions for PG studies are strictly governed by Govt of India, Ministry of Defence letter No F/PC-8510/DGAFMS/DG-1/345/2013/D(Med) dated 6th March 2013 and amendments thereof. The admission and training is controlled by the Office of the DGAFMS in accordance with prevalent rules. The priority for admission of candidates is as follows:-

- (a) Priority-I - AFMS Officers detailed on advance specialist course/other courses as per guidelines of NMC/ NBE.
- (b) Priority-II - Foreign students sponsored by Government - On approval of DGAFMS/MoD/MEA subject to conditions laid down by the Govt. of India
- (c) Priority-III - Medical Officers sponsored by Para Military Organization / other Govt. of India organization. Sponsorship certificate mentioning the subjects for sponsorship by the sponsoring authority is mandatory requirement for the candidate to be considered for counseling.
- (d) Priority-IV – Ex-SSC AMC Officers released from service after completion of contractual service and within three years after their release from service. The date of release should not be before 01 May 2019 or after the date of AFMS counseling for the NEET PG 2022 session.

- (i) SSC officers in their last year of initial contractual service and likely to finish the initial contractual service before the day of admission to the college allotted may appear under this category. They will have to produce their original release order and other documents as specified in our Information Bulletin.
- (ii) SSC officers in their extended contractual service may apply for this category subject to having submitted their application for release and only with permission of the DGAFMS.
- (iii) SSC officers still in service and are confirmed of their attaining the Ex-SSC status prior to the date of admission and are not willing for further extension will register as Priority IV candidate at the time of registration on the MCC website for the counseling.

In all the above cases they will have to apply for NOC from the Armed Forces Medical Services at the time of registration on the MCC website. At the time of admission to any college, they will have to produce documentary proof of their attaining Ex-SSC status without which they will not be considered for admission to the college.

- (iv) Officers who have resigned their commission /dismissed /removed from service/ not completed their initial contractual service are NOT eligible under this category. Such officers are also not eligible as Priority-V candidates.

(e) Priority-V - Civilian candidates willing to serve in the Armed Forces Medical Services (AFMS) subject to their fulfilling the eligibility criteria mentioned at para 20 below. It may be noted that offering of PG seats to civilian candidates as Priority V is with sole objective to meet the specialist requirement of the Armed Forces Medical Services. Civilian candidates will have to submit a bond agreement to pay an amount as sanctioned by the Govt. of India at the time of allotment of PG seat, in case they are unwilling to join AFMS when offered commission. They also have to be medically fit to the standards required for commission in the AFMS at the time of admission. Officers of the AFMS who have resigned their commission/ dismissed/ removed from service/ not completed their initial contractual service as SSC officers are not eligible to be considered even as Priority-V candidates, though they may fulfill the age criteria.

17. All candidates desirous of admission to postgraduate courses should have appeared in the NEET-PG 2022 and secured minimum qualifying score as indicated by MCC to be eligible for AFMS counseling. Candidates, who have registered on DGHS/MCC website for AFMS PG Counseling, secured minimum qualifying score or more marks as indicated by NBE in NEET-PG 2022 and also produce the necessary documents, shall only be eligible to participate in the AFMS counseling.

18. The actual number of courses/ seats available shall be subject to vacancies available after fulfilling the training requirements of AFMS subject to available resources and in consonance with the Govt. of India / NMC and relevant University regulations. The number of seats available for non-service candidates, based on available resources shall be displayed on the website and at the time of commencement of counseling. It is reiterated that there may not be any seat available in some subjects/ courses if they have been allotted to candidates higher in priority and merit.

SPECIFIC AGE CRITERIA FOR PRIORITY-V (CIVILIAN) CANDIDATES

19. The age criteria is as mentioned under:-
