Memo No HFW- 23099/92 /2021/M/170

Dated 07.02.2022

Urgent notice WB UG 2021 regarding Counseling registration, choice filling, candidate list publication
And
Round 1 result and admission days modification

In view of representations received from the candidates, the registration and choice filling period for WB UG 2021 counseling Round 1 is extended from 12 noon till 12 midnight (total 12 hours as per server time) on 7th February 2022.

No extension in enrollment and payment provided for Round 1.

The candidate list (who have registered successfully and filled up and saved choice in round 1) shall be published after 4 pm on 8th February 2022.

The result for round 1 allotment shall be published after 4 pm of 9th February 2022.

The round 1 admission shall be from 10th February 2022 to 12th February 2022 (all 3 days from 10 am till 4 pm as per server time).

The admission is physical reporting of the allotted candidate to the allotted college with requisite original documents, one set self attested photocopy and requisite college fee and bond as applicable within stipulated time. At first the candidate has to undergo verification of documents and only if college authority is satisfied with the documents and credentials, then admission shall be granted to the candidate. The candidate must obtain server generated admission slip from the college otherwise the admission cannot be recorded in server and it will show that the seat is remaining not reported.

The bond shall be made in non judicial stamp paper not less than Rs 50/- with additional demy paper as required. The availability of upgradation willingness option shall be available in the allotted college. The candidate if want to upgrade in round 2 can choose YES for willingness. The same shall need to be reflected in server generated admission slip.

After submitting the original documents to the colleges the candidate gets a slip stating the essential documents that are submitted to the college. All the original documents as stated above in the notice have to be submitted to college authority except the age proof and caste certificate.

The candidate gets back such documents after showing such original slip only in up gradation during counseling/end of the course tenure/resignation after clearing necessary dues with the college authority as applicable.

The change of willingness once submitted cannot be altered later.

The last date for seat surrender for candidates admitted in Round 1 is 12.02.2022 till 4 PM as per server time.

There shall be no facility for seat surrender in Round 2 or later. Surrendered candidate cannot participate in counseling any further.

Round 2 and Online Mop Up shall be fresh choice filling for all eligible candidates.

If candidate not report to allotted college, still they can attend Round 2 counseling and fill up choice afresh straightaway without penalty. If candidate provides willingness for round 2 but does not fill fresh choice in round2, then earlier admitted seat shall be retained by the candidate. If candidate provides willingness for round 2 and fills fresh choice in round 2 but not upgraded then also earlier admitted seat shall be retained by the candidate. If candidate provides willingness for round 2 and fills fresh choice in round 2 and gets upgraded then earlier retained seat shall be automatically cancelled. Then he/she has to go to previous admitted college and get back documents and fee (admission fee shall be forfeited) and generate server provided Reliving letter. Then he/she has to move for admission in newly allotted college of round 2 within scheduled time with originals, photocopies, bond and college fee for newly allotted college.

If any allotted candidate does not report to allotted college in round 2, still can go to mop up round by again paying counseling fee and register afresh. They are not allowed to change earlier enrolled information though.

Fresh enrollment, fee payment, registration facility also available for candidates in Round 2 and online mop up if they are NEET PG 2021 qualified and eligible for WB PG Medical 2021 counseling (who have otherwise not done so in earlier round/s due to any cause).

The COVID-19 protocol shall have to be strictly followed by the allotted candidates and college authority. Temperature checking by thermal gun at the entry gate shall be deployed. Staff and candidates shall compulsorily wear mask. Hand sanitization facility shall be made available at the admission and document verification premises. Liquid hand soaps in washrooms should be made available. If the candidate is symptomatic/Covid-19 positive, then he/she cannot be allowed to physically report for document verification and admission. He/she however can send authorized relative/guardian (asymptomatic) to deposit documents and fee for completion of admission process during scheduled time.

If a candidate provides willingness for round 2 and then does not fill fresh choice in such round, then the candidate retains the admitted seat of round 1.

If the candidate provides willingness for round 2 and fills choice in round 2 but does not get any fresh allotment as per his/her rank and choice, then earlier round 1 admitted seat is retained.

If SC/ST/OBC/OBCA/OBCB/EWS candidate is allotted in UR (unreserved) seat and not produce valid certificate, then the caste status shall be edited to UR for counselling purpose by the allotted institute and the admission letter shall be generated for this round and database will be updated and the candidate shall be considered in next round/s as UR only. This situation is only possible in case of caste candidates obtained above or equal to 50 percentile marks in NEET PG 2021 exam.

If SC/ST/OBC/OBCA/OBCB/EWS candidate is allotted in respective caste/quota seat and not produce valid certificate, then caste status shall be edited to UR for counselling purpose by the allotted institute and then cancellation order of seat for this round shall be generated and database will be updated and candidate shall be considered as UR in next round only if the said candidate has obtained UR above or equal to 50 percentile marks in NEET PG 2021 exam.

If PC (Physically Challenged) candidate is allotted in non PC seat and not produce valid certificate, then the PC status shall be changed to respective non PC category and admission letter shall be generated and database will be updated and the candidate shall be considered in next round as Non PC only as per eligibility.

If PC candidate is allotted a PC seat and not produce valid certificate, then PC status shall be changed to respective non PC category and cancellation order of such allotted seat for this round shall be generated and database will be updated and candidate shall be considered as Non PC in next round only as per eligibility.

If any kind of suppression of facts/ mis-information/falsification/fabricated information furnished by candidate detected at any stage; will lead to cancellation of the candidature forthwith. Candidates are requested to visit the website <http://www.wbmcc.nic.in> frequently for updates and information.
